

Woodrow Wilson
Rehabilitation Center

What TRAIN IT offers Employers:

Proven track record of successfully preparing students for competitive access to Information Technology careers;

Emphasis on the acquisition of lifelong learning skills critical to job retention;

Continued access to TRAIN IT Online resources for students after completion for additional skills development.

What TRAIN IT offers Clients:

Web-based instruction at home or a convenient location;

Individualized training curriculum to provide specific technical and workplace skills needed for success in a chosen IT career path;

Flexible training schedules to accommodate any lifestyle or disability.

Contact Information:

1/800-345-9972 (Voice)

1/800-811-7893 (TTY)

Staff Extensions: 7313/7352

TRAIN IT Online

TRAIN IT Online is an innovative Information Technology (IT) program driven by industry standards that can be tailored to meet specialized competencies required for a given business. Companies can meet their business goals and objectives by selecting qualified applicants from this program.

Educational Tracks Available:

- Microsoft Office Specialist
- Computer Support Specialist
- Desktop Support Technician
- Project Manager Professional
- Web Applications Developer
- Systems & Network Administrator